Congressional Convention.

At a meeting of the democracy of Monroe County, held at the court house in Bloomington, on Saturday the 27th day of February, 1847, for the purpose of organizing and making arrangements for holding a district congressional convention, the Hon. Paris C. Denning was appointed chairman and Jacob L. Payne secretary.

Whereupon, on motion, S. H. Buskirk explained the object of the meeting, and was followed by the chairman in a neat and pertinent address to the people present. The meeting was further addressed by Messrs. F. T. Butler, W. C. Tarkington and A. McCleland.

On motion, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we consider it all important that the democracy of the 6th Congressional district should meet in convention on Wednesday the 11th day of April, 1847, at Bloomfield, by suitable delegates, appointed either by county or township meetings, as each county may deem most advisable.

Resolved, That in order that the convention, when constituted, should be in reality what it purports to be—a democratic convention—we would suggest to our democratic brethren of this district, that each county shall be entitled to one vote for every hundred democratic voters in said counties composing the 6th congressional district.

Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to adhere to the democratic nominees through "as well as a good report," and to disown any candidate who will not submit his pretensions to, and abide by, the decision of his democratic brethren when assembled in convention.

Resolved, That in the approaching congressional campaign we believe that the whigs will not only have a regular nominee of their own in the field, but that they are now, and will hereafter endeavor to divide and distract the democratic party to the utmost extent of their power, we would most earnestly call upon the democracy of this district to be "up and doing," and we would further advise, not only that each county in the district should be fully represented in convention, but also that they should frequently hold county and township meetings to devise such measures as may best promote the triumph of democratic principles.

Resolved, That, having full confidence in the tried competency, integrity, and talents of Dr. William G. Foster, we recommend him to the convention as a general in every way qualified to discharge the duties of a Representative in Congress; and believing that one who faithfully served his country during the last war with England, will as faithfully serve his country and his party to the councils of the nation, we respectfully urge his claims upon the democracy of this district.

Resolved, That the following gentlemen be and they are hereby appointed delegates to represent this county in the district convention, viz:

B. A. Barlow, D. Chitwood, Jno. B. Cox and Jas. Alexander; Clark, A. W. Rogers, Wm. Hunter, and John Hinman.

C. C. Chapman—Basil Hill, P. Vestal, W. C. Walker and Philip Stultze; J. Carmichael, P. Morgan, E. Walker, James Gillam, T. Carter, and James Carmichael.

John C. Darrow, Wm. Berry, J. Baker, John Goodright, John Poore, and Robert Greenway; J. Richardson—M. Hall, D. Byers, F. T. Butler, C. Warr, John Acuff, and Sam'l Hinman.

Perry—John Ketchem, Samuel Patton, S. Mathews, Wm. Snodgrass, James Bowden, and John Shultz; B. C. Dunning, E. Abel, J. L. Payne, Daniel Stout, Ben. Rogers, M. McPhereson, Alexander McCloud, Samuel Bushard and W. C. Tarkington.

Resolved, That the democrats of this county being determined that their rights and interests shall no longer be misrepresented in the State legislature by whigs, we therefore invite the co-operation of our democratic brethren of Brown county to a meeting in this county on the 13th day of March to devise such measures as shall fully carry out the object of this resolution.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the State Sentinel, the Vincennes Sun and the Bedford Sun.

P. C. DUNNING, President.

J. L. PAYNE, Secretary.

Congress.

Feb. 27.—The Senate had a long session, in the course of which it passed several appropriation and other bills. A committee of conference was appointed on the naval appropriation bill. The bill for the relief of the people of Ireland and Scotland was passed by a vote of 27 to 13. It appropriates $300,000 to be expended for provisions, to be sent to England in national vessels, under the direction of the President. Mr. Niles made an interesting speech of three hours' length upon the three million bill. An earnest appeal was made by Mr. Sevier to take the vote upon the bill to-night, in accordance with what appeared to be the general understanding some days back, but it was unsuccessful, and the bill was postponed until Monday, by a vote of 27 to 23. Mr. J. M. Clayton having the floor. Mr. Bright, on leave, introduced a bill providing for the surrender of certain bonds of the State of Indiana, held by the United States; which was read and passed to the second reading.
